Annabelle Ribet's practice covers all aspects of civil, corporate and commercial law. She provides legal advice and assistance throughout all the stages of the corporate life, including corporate formation, corporate governance matters, carrying out due diligence exercises in cases of M&A as well as compliance-related issues.

She has acquired experience in drafting and advising on a wide range of domestic and foreign law governed commercial agreements, including loan and finance agreements, service and outsourcing agreements (warehousing, supply and logistics, agency and distribution, manufacturing), as well as software/website development contracts and confidentiality agreements.

Annabelle also advises clients on all aspects of immigration law, whether in terms of the strategies and actions for foreigners who are planning to relocate to Mauritius and individuals who wish to acquire the Mauritian residency or citizenship.

She also has a keen interest in real estate and hospitality matters. In addition to being involved in the drafting and negotiation of commercial and residential lease agreements, she has also been advising promoters, investors and other key players with respect to real estate transactions and developments.

Plastic Ban In Mauritius

12 March 2021

As from 15 January 2021, the Environment Protection (Control of Single Use Plastic Products) Regulations 2020 (the "Regulations") came into operation and banned the importation, manufacture, possession, sale, supply and use of not less than 10 non-biodegradable single use plastic products. These restrictions form part of the Government's 2020-2024 program to make Mauritius a plastic-free country.

COVID-19 and its impact on contractual performance in Mauritius - Force Majeure

13 May 2020

While the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic subsists, the risks for businesses of not being able to fulfil their contractual obligations or of experiencing the default of the other contracting party is a real concern for economic operators. To manage this unprecedented situation and provide an adequate response, a careful analysis of the contract terms is essential to enable parties to exercise their rights if a dispute arises from non-performance. As a first step, it will generally be a question of analysing the possibility of invoking the defence mechanism of force majeure.
