

Mohamed Dieng

Partner, GENI & KEBE Lawyers

maadieng@gsklaw.sn

Dakar

T +221 33 821 19 16

F +221 33 842 62 75

M +221 77 504 11 90

Mohamed Dieng heads GENI & KEBE Lawyers' Litigation and Regulatory team. He represents clients in litigation matters before all courts in Senegal, with a focus on civil claims and employment law.

Mohamed also advises on transactional mining issues and infrastructure projects, including project financing. Mohamed's experience includes advising clients in a number of Francophone countries in sub-Saharan Africa, particularly with cross-border transactions.

Related services

Litigation, Arbitration and Regulatory

Employment

Finance and Projects

Related sectors

Financial Services

Consumer Goods and Retail

Infrastructure, Construction and Transport

Languages spoken

English, French, Wolof

Experience

Experience has included advising:

- Toro Gold on the Mako Project joint venture in Senegal
- Franco-Nevada in a USD135 million stream transaction in Senegal
- FMO/BIO financing for Senergy 2's energy project
- Dangote in its successful action to challenge a EUR1.4 million tax bill
- Airbus and a multinational Spanish bank on the bridging finance for the sale of an A330new airplane to Air Senegal – the first in Africa
- Citibank on FATCA regulations

Credentials

Professional Qualifications

- Avocat à la cour admitted to the Senegalese Bar (2010)

Education

- University of Geneva, LL.M. (2007)
- University of Lausanne, LL.M. (2005)
- University of Gaston Berger, BA (2002)
- University of Gaston Berger, LL.B. (2000)

Recognition

- Winner of Finance Monthly's Deal Maker of the Year Award 2014

Insights

Legal 500 recognizes Geni & Kebe

6 May 2024

Geni & Kebe, a member of the DLA Piper Africa group, has been recognized once again as a Tier 1 leading law firm by the Legal 500.

Opportunities for Fresh Graduates

6 April 2023

Geni & Kebe offers internship opportunity for university students.