

Admilson Milagre

Associate, ADCA

admilson.milagre@adca.dlapiper africa.com

Luanda

T + 244 926 612 525

Admilson Milagre advises in the areas of tax law, corporate, litigation and foreign investment.

His area of practice focus on: agreements between partners, purchase of partnership, replacement of members in corporations and the impugnation of actions exercised by the respective tax entity, as well as, the structuring of debt funds, hedge funds, private equity funds and structured products.

Related services

Corporate

Finance and Projects

Tax

Related sectors

Financial Services

Technology

Energy and Natural Resources

Languages spoken

Portuguese, English

Experience

Experience has included advising:

- As a team member, one of the largest investment companies on the opening of its subsidiaries in Angola
- As a team member, foreign investors on the application of privileged visas
- As a team member, foreign investors on how to structure transactions and deals in the Angolan market
- As a team member, clients on the incorporation of companies in the Angolan territory

Credentials

Professional Qualification

- Admitted to the Angolan Bar Association (2020)

Education

- Catholic University of Angola, Law School, Law Degree (2017)

Prior Experience

www.dlapiper africa.com

- 2020 to date, Associate, ADCA - Carvalho & Associados, DLA Piper Africa member firm in Angola
- 2019 to 2020, Trainee Lawyer, ADCA - Carvalho & Associados, DLA Piper Africa member firm in Angola
- 2016, participation in the international competition for human rights, American University Washington College of Law
- 2014 to date, Volunteer (VUCAN – Catholic University volunteer)
- 2014 to 2017, Assistant of pedagogical direction
- 2013 to 2017, Teacher

Memberships

- VUCAN – Catholic University volunteer