

Madina Chenge

Partner, IMMMA Advocates

Madina.Chenge@immma.dlapiperafrica.co.tz

Dar es Salaam

T +255 22 22 110 80-83

 LinkedIn profile

Madina Chenge is a Partner and Deputy Head of the Banking and Finance department at IMMMA Advocates. In this capacity, Madina is involved in several of the major banking and finance transactions on which the firm is engaged to give advice, including acquisitions and disposals, joint ventures and sale and supply arrangements.

Madina is also often involved in advisory assignments regarding electronic communication and competition issues in Tanzania, including regulatory compliance, merger applications, fair practices by regulators, issues concerning abuse of position of dominance and consumer protection laws.

Related services

Finance and Projects

Corporate

Real Estate

Related sectors

Energy and Natural Resources

Financial Services

Infrastructure, Construction and Transport

Languages spoken

English, Kiswahili

Experience

Experience has included advising:

- Both local and international lenders in a USD75 million secured syndicated lending to a prominent sugar manufacturer in Tanzania
- An international bank in a USD20 million secured lending for construction and development of a mine in Tanzania
- A pan-African development bank in a USD12 million lending for the development of hydro and wind power plants to be secured against the plants
- An international bank in a USD24 million lending to a Tanzania-based underground mining company to be secured against assets located in Tanzania
- The Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC) in relation to a loan guaranty facility for small- and medium-sized agribusinesses in Tanzania to be made available to two local banks
- OPIC in a USD32 million secured lending to a Tanzania logistic company
- An international hotel chain in the acquisition of hotels in Tanzania
- Rakgas Tanzania Limited on negotiations of a product sharing agreement with the Tanzanian government through TPDC

Credentials

Professional Qualifications

- Advocate of the High Court of Tanzania and all courts subordinate thereto (except primary courts)

Education

- Regents Business School, MA Global Management (Finance) (2008)
- University of Westminster, UK, LL.B. (2007)
- Kingswood School, Bath, UK, A- Levels (2002)
- Kingswood School, Bath, UK, GCSEs (2000)

Recognition

Madina Change is ranked by Chambers Global (2021) in Tanzania General Business Law. Testimonies obtained by Chambers Global's research had this to say about her, "Madina knows everything and gives very good practical guidance."

Madina Change is ranked by Chambers Global (2020) Tanzania General Business Law in Up and Coming category. It says, Madina Change is recognised by market commentators for her banking and finance work, with additional expertise in corporate transactions, regulatory compliance and notable litigation support roles. One source described her as a "good, young lawyer."

- Awarded the Duke of Edinburgh Award, UK (2000)
- Bronze Award in the Mathematics Challenge Competition, UK (2000)

Prior Experience

- 2015 to date, Partner, IMMMA Advocates, DLA Piper Africa, Tanzania
- 2011 to 2015, Associate, Tanzania-based law firm
- 2009 to 2011, Legal Officer, Tanzania-based law firm
- 2008 to 2009, Intern, Tanzania-based law firm

Memberships

- Tanganyika Law Society
- East Africa Law Society

Insights

Registration with the Personal Data Protection Commission in Tanzania: An Overview of the Registration Requirement.

10 April 2025

With the establishment of the Personal Data Protection Commission (PDPC) following the enactment of the Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA), 2022, Tanzania has made significant progress in strengthening personal data protection across both public and private sectors.

The Personal Data Protection Act, 2022

16 May 2023

This is an update to our Data Protection Laws of the World: Tanzania dated 26 January 2023, which provided an overview of the Personal Data Protection Act, 2022.

Tanzania Finance Act 2020: The concept of Beneficial Ownership

28 June 2020

Ever since the landmark decision by the House of Lords (UK) in Salomon v Salomon & Co in 1897, the doctrine of corporate personality has been recognized in Tanzanian law.

